MEDIA RELEASE

UPDATED INFORMATION***

U.S. Highway 51 South to Close for Trump Visit

For Immediate Release

Date: 10/14/20

Case: N/A

Contact Person

Captain Mark Thompson
(608) 757-7944

The Rock County Sheriff's Office has been advised that Blackhawk Technical College was designated as the parking location for the event. With the increased traffic in the area and planned closure of U.S. Highway 51, we recommend using County Road G to access the parking area. Shuttle buses will be available to transport individuals to the venue. The Sheriff's Office anticipates heavy traffic volume in this area and seeks your cooperation in allotting extra time if you are attending the event.

In regards to U.S. Highway 51, vehicles will not be allowed to stop on the highway between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. when the road closes. Sheriff's Office personnel will be monitoring this area for any violations.

Please direct any media inquiries to the White House Press Office at 202-456-9570

ORIGINAL RELEASE

On Saturday, 10/17/20, President Donald Trump is expected to visit the Southern Wisconsin Regional Airport for a campaign rally fundraising event. Because of this, U.S. Highway 51 is anticipated to be closed between State Highway 11 & B-R Townline Road from 1700 – 2000 hours.

The Rock County Sheriff's Office advises planning and taking alternate routes of travel to avoid the area during this timeframe. Thank you for your anticipated cooperation.
